Europeanization. From 1400s onward, Europeanization and colonialism spread gradually over much of the world and controlled different regions during this five centuries long period, colonizing or subjecting the majority of the globe. The two World Wars weakened the European powers to such extent that many people in the colonies strove for independence, often inspired by nationalistic movements.

How can international private law react when a state collapses, dragging national law down with it? Priv.-Doz. Dr. Nadjma Yassari, head of the research group on family law and succession law in Islamic countries at the Max Planck Institute for Private Law, has pursued this question by examining the case of Syria. Her article on the subject appears in the latest issue of the Rabel Journal.
