A god game is an artificial life game that casts the player in the position of controlling the game on a large scale, as an entity with divine and supernatural powers, as a great leader, or with no specified character (as in Spore), and places them in charge of a game setting containing autonomous characters to guard and influence.

5 failures. Following Weimer and Vining (2005, 206) we might distinguish "passive government failure," where government inaction results in Pareto inferior outcomes, from "active government failure," where government action results in outcomes worse than if government had done nothing.
