The Lost Dutchman's Gold Mine (also known by similar names) is, according to legend, a rich gold mine hidden in the southwestern United States. The location is generally believed to be in the Superstition Mountains, near Apache Junction, east of Phoenix, Arizona. There have been many stories about how to find the mine, and each year people search for the mine.

I apologize for the length of this quote. I think it is only fair to give Dr. Wald ample time and space for his views to be expressed. [The following is] transcribed directly from his paper "The Origin of Life," which appeared in the August 1954 (pages 44-53) issue of Scientific American.. Any mistakes of transcription are of course mine.

As noted in the Introduction, our intent was to continue to add to our collection of quote mines. This is the first such addition and no fitter subject could be chosen than to address some more quote mines of Charles Darwin. However, since these quotes are not from a single source, as was the case in the original Quote Mine Project, there are some differences in how they are organized. Before ...
