In basketball, a steal occurs when a defensive player legally causes a turnover by his positive, aggressive action(s). This can be done by deflecting and controlling, or by catching the opponent's pass or dribble of an offensive player. The defender must not touch the offensive player's hands or otherwise a foul is called.. Steals are credited to the defensive player who first causes the ...

1. What is Employee Theft? Employee theft is defined as any stealing, use or misuse of an employer's assets without permission. 1 The term employer's assets are important because it implies that employee theft involves more than just cash. In many industries, there are much more important things than cash that employees can steal from a company.
