characters as you quote them. ! Do not use two quotations in a row, without intervening material of your own. ! Tense is a tricky issue. It's customary in literary analysis to use the present tense; it is at the present time that you (and your reader) are looking at the text. But events in a narrative or drama take place in a time sequence.

6. If the reference to the speaker is in the middle of a quote, the quoted words on both sides of the reference are in quotation marks. (See rule 3). 7. When you change speakers in a paper, you usually begin a new paragraph. 8. Direct quotations are the exact words of the speaker. An indirect quotation tells what the speaker said as told by the writer.
